25X1

1. On 20 and 21 August 1950 the landing field of the Laucha (M 52/J 79) airfield was being farmed. Some of the buildings and hangars on the southwestern edge of the field were occupied and some were in poor condition. One building was used as a hospital. *

- * Comment. The information on the present condition of the landing field has not been confirmed. According to the last observation in 1948 the landing field was still serviceable. The hospital was already housed in the building.
